Proposal Guidelines for SNEP 2024

Stonewall National Museum, Archives, & Library is currently accepting proposals for workshops, trainings, or other forms of programming related to the development and implementation of best practices around LGBTQIA+ equity and preservation within schools and educational organizations/agencies.

This is an opportunity to facilitate a proactive experience for folks across the nation who are as dedicated as you in ensuring a safe and informed future for all communities. This is a time for transformative community building!

Areas of Concern to Explore

- LGBTQIA+ Inclusive Curriculum
- Intersectional Practices
- How to Respond to anti-LGBTQIA+ policies and procedures
- Culturally Specific Training/Relationship Building
- Gender Inclusive Language
- Accessibility
- Relevant Research pertaining to sustaining safe environments/communities

Requirements

- All presenters should prepare to present live and onsite. Some presentations will be made available to a virtual audience as well. If you are interested in that, please let us know and format your presentation accordingly.
- Presentations by one presenter should be 30 minutes but not exceed 45 minutes. Please be specific on timing when you submit your program. If there are multiple presenters, please contact Ana to discuss length and scope of presentation.
- Equipment needed to present must be specified beforehand in order to accommodate accordingly
- Must be able to present in-person at the Symposium
- Proposal must include: Working Title, Abstract, Learning Outcomes, and Resources (if applicable).
