SNMA opposes the new Florida law which inhibits discussion of sexual orientation and gender identity in public classrooms.

To protest the new law, staff and volunteers of Stonewall have recorded a cover-to-cover public reading of George Matthew Johnson's All Boy's Aren't Blue. The entire book has been read aloud by staff and volunteers. The entire reading be found here.

Along with hundreds of other titles, All Boy's Aren't Blue has been banned from more than fifty libraries and school districts nationwide, including some here in Florida. Read more.

The cover-to-cover reading can be found on our website and will be distributed to school and library districts around the county, especially in areas where access to LGBTQ books has been denied.

SNMA continues to be resource for educators and parents regarding LGBTQ topics in education. More resources can be found here. On April 14, 2022, Stonewall will hold its two day symposium on LGBTQ Inclusive Curriculum. For details read more.
